BRYAN ASSAILS JUDGE PARKER

Declares Him Unfit for Presidency.

Bases His Opposition Upon Planks in New York Platform.

Which He Says Is Ambiguous, Evasive, Dishonest and Would Disgrace Democratic Party.

HICAGO, April 23,-William J. Bryan addressed a large audience tonight in the armory of the Second infantry, at the corner of Curtis street and Washington bouleward. The place was packed to its utmost capacity, and a large number of nersons were unable to get through the

The meeting was entirely an affair of Mr. Bryan's, he having rented the armory and paid all expenses of the meeting. He was particular to have it understood that his address was not in favor or against any particular aspirant for the Democratic nomination for President. His subject was "The New York Platform." This he repeated several times during the course of his

In order that his address might not have the appearance of being delivered under any particular political influence, Mr. Bryan was his own presiding offi-cer and introduced himself to his hear-

Hired Hall for Himself.

His address was chiefly as follows: "As it is somewhat unusual for a political speech to be made as this one is tonight, let me preface my remarks with an explanation. I have hired this hall and I introduce myself because I do not care to speak under the auspices of any club or organization which is committed to any particular aspirant

"My concern is not about the name of the personality of the nominee, but about the principles for which the Democratic party is to stand. While many of the newspapers seem to assume that the contest for the Democratic nomination is necessarily between Judge Par-ker and Mr. Hearst, and that every Democrat must either be for one or the other, such a position is illogical and thout foundation.
"My own position is one of neutral-

Unfit for Nomination.

'I cannot hope to convince those who fevor deception and fraud in politics, but I am satisfied that we now have sufficient to convict Judge of absolute unfitness for the

"If he did not know of the platform In advance, if he did not himself dic-tate or agree to it, he has allowed it to go out as his utterance, for the convention was dominated by his friends and adopted a resolution presenting him as the candidate of the party of

What are the issues before the counan issue, and yet there is nothing in that platform that gives any encouragement to the opponents of the trusts.

"Imperialism is an issue. Our Govern-ment is now administering a colonia policy according to the political principles employed by George III. a century and a quarter ago, and yet there is not in this platform a single word relating to the question of imperialism, not a plank that defines the party's po-sition on that subject, not a protest against the surrender of the doctrines of self government.
"The labor question is an issue. The laboring men have been before the committees of Congress endeavoring to se-cure three important measures. One is the arbitration of differences between corporations engaged in interstate comrce, and their employees. Both the Chicago and Kansas City platforms declared in favor of arbitration, but the New York platform not only fails to refer to the arbitration plan of these platforms, but it fails to write a new plank concerning this sub-ject. The laboring men are also trying to secure and eight-hour day, but the New York platform is slient on this secure the abolition of government by injunction. Both the Chicago and Kan-sas City platforms contained planks on this subject, but the New York platform dodges this as it does all other

Afraid of the Tariff.

"On the tariff question no issue is pined. Mr. Hill and Judge Parker seem to be as much afraid of the tariff questions as of other issues.
"The money question is ignored entirely. No reference is made to bi-metallism at any ratio-not even to in-ternational bimetallism, to which Mr. Hill seemed to be so attached in the Chicago convention. No reference is made to the measure now before Congress to melt up nearly 600,000,000 legal tender dollars into subsidiary coin that is only a limited legal tender.

"Nothing is said about the asset currency which is a part of the scheme of the financiers. Nothing is said about the Aldrich bill, which proposes to subsidize the banks into opposition to tax reduction by loaning them the surplus money in the treasury. There is no condemnation of the corruption that such a system would lead to.

"The platform does not antagonize
the proposition now before Congress to give the national banks unlimited con-trol over the volume of paper money. In other words, there is not a line in the platform that is written in behalf of the people; not a line that will excite criticism in Wall street.

The platform ignores the income tax, it falls to indorse the election of Senators by direct vote, and also omits the plank of the Kansas City platform ouncing corporate domination in Politics. 'The New York platform is a dishonest platform, fit only for a dishonest party. No one but an artful dedger would stand upon it. The submission of such a platform to the voters of a State is an insult to their intelligence, for it is intended to deceive them, and a deliberate attempt to deceive espe-cially so clumsy an attempt as this platform is—is a reflection upon the brains of those to whom it is submit-

Opposition to Every Reform.

'This platform proves that the oppo-sition to the Kansas City platform is not opposition to silver, but opposition to every needed reform and opposition to all that the masses desire

"I had expected that a platform pre-pared by Mr. Hill for Judge Parker would be evasive and lacking in frankness, but I did not conceive that any body of men calling themselves Democrats would present such a platform as a recommendation of a candidate. "If we are to take the New York platform as an indication of what the next Democratic platform is to be in case the reorganizers control the convention, then who will be able to deny the secret purpose of the reorganizers to turn the party over to predatory

"With such a platform and a candi-date who would be willing to run upon it, the party could secure as large a campeign fund as the Republican party has ever secured, but in securing it, it would, like the Republican party, secretly pledge the administration to a construction of the platform satisfac-tory to the corporations and the com-

"Can any one doubt that with such platform as was adopted in New York, and with a candidate whose conscience would permit him to run upon such a platform—does any one doubt that with such a platform and candidate the party would be mortgaged beforehand to the corporations that are now using the Government as a private asset and plundering the people at will?

Change in Supreme Court.

"But there is another reason why the Democratic party cannot afford to go before the country with an ambiguous platform and an uncertain candidate. No matter how people may differ as to the relative importance of issues, all must recognize that the trust question today presents an important phase of the great conflict between plutocracy and Democracy.

"We have recently had a Suprem court decision on the merger case. This decision was rendered by a bare ma-jority of one, and that one (Judge Brewer) in a separate opinion outlined his position in such a way as to leave no doubt that in the first case involving a trust he may join the majority and defeat the Sherman law.

"The President to be elected this fall will doubtless have the appointment of one or two and possibly three Su-preme court judges. If his sympathies are with the corporations he will doubtless appoint judges satisfactory to the corporations—especially if obligated to the corporations by large campaign contributions—and these judges can make it impossible to secure any remedial legic price to secure any remedial legic price to secure any remedial legic prices. dial legislation for years to come.

"If, four years hence, the people should secure a President, a Senate and House of Representatives opposed to private monopolies, they may find themselves unable to get any remedial legislation past the Supreme court for everal years.
"The issue presented today in the trust question, and in all other ques-tions with which we have to deal, is the question between human rights and so-called 'property rights'—or, more properly speaking, between ordinary people and the great corporations. "Those who believe that property rights are supreme take the side of the trusts. "If we have a President who is in sympathy with this theory it means that the dollar will be given consideration before men. It means that organ-ized wealth can continue to trample on the rights of the people; it means that the instrumentalities of government can be used for the protection of every scheme of exploitation that the capitalists can conceive.

Tool of the Corporations. "I, for one, am not willing that the Democratic party shall become the tool of the corporations; I am not willing zed wealth. "If any of those who are present tonight or read what I say think that I am trying to interfere with Democratic success, let me answer that no Democrat is more anxious for the party to succeed than I am. No one has suffered more from dissensions and di-visions in the party, and no one, I be-lieve, is more eager for the country to enjoy the great benefits which a tri-umph of real Democracy would bring. "But I do not desire that the party shall win offices only. If that is the only purpose of the party, let its prin-ciples be abandoned and its platform simply declare the party hungry for the patronage.

"The New York platform is ambiguous, evasive and dishonest. It would disgrace the Democrats of the nation to adopt such a platform, and it ought to defeat as an aspirant for a Demo cratic nomination any man who would be willing to have it go forth as a declaration of his views on public ques-

"In Illinois, in Wisconsin, in Michiran, in Minnesota, in Indiana, in Obio and in every State that has not acted, it behooves the Democrats to arouse themselves and organize to the end that they may prevent the consumma-tion of the schemes of the reorgan-

"The scheme begins with the deception of the rank and file of the party.
"It is to be followed up by the debauching of the public with a cam-paign fund secured from corporations, and it is to be consummated by the betrayal of the party organization and of the country into the hands of those who are today menacing the liberties of the country by their exploitation of the producers of wealth."

Murderous Assault by Japanese.
VICTORIA. B. C., April 23.—This afternoon the foreman of the Sidney sawmill discharged eight Japanese helpers because business did not warrant keeping them. Two of the Japa later picked a quarrel with the foreman, who was accompanied by Sidney S. Sannders, assistant foreman. The Japanese attacked the two white men with an ax and a knife. The unarmed white men defended themselves as well as they could, but received ghastly wounds about the head and body. The foreman will die.

KNEW LINCOLN MOVEMENT TO UNITE ALL UTAH WORKERS

Salt Lake Federation of Labor Appeals to All Unions in Utah to Join Hands.

HE Sait Lake Federation of Labor has taken an important step in the direction of forming an organization of all the labor unions in Utah, a recent meeting George C. Henry, J. H. Brittain and J. L. Lavery were appointed a committee to have charge of the work. This committee has issued the following circular letter, which explains the movement: To All Labor Unions of Utah, Greeting; -At the last meeting of the Salt Lake Federation of Labor, on the question of enited effort of the labor unions to combat the aggressiveness of our common enemy in this State, it was decidedly the opinion that the best results could be accomplished through a State organization, as it would then give us a better chance for united action that would undoubtedly be to the greatest advantage of all concerned; therefore a committee was appointed with instructions to issue an invitation to all labor unions of this State to send delegates to a meeting to be opened May 2rd, at 8 p. m. and continue so long as a majority of delegates at said meeting shall think best, for the purpose of discussing the labor movement and taking such action as may seem best adapted to advance our common interests. We sincerely appeal to you to send a representative of your very best and most conservative members, in order that results may be accomplished in the shortest and most advantageous manner possible. We desire to say that there are now about 7000 union members in this State, and with a united effort of same a great deal can be accomplished. complished through a State organization, a united effort of same a great deal can be accomplished. We ask for representation on the following busis: One (I) delegate for each charter and one additional delegate for each one hundred members or majority fraction thereof, central bodies three delegates. All delegates should have credentials properly signed and sealed.

We take the liberty of issuing this call without previously advising with the other unions, because the miners are to hold their State convention on May 2rd, and so we believe this to be our opportune time to get a full representation at a minimum cost to outside unions.

We have not arranged any special order of business to come before the meeting, believing that such can best be done by delegates at the meeting, therefore we recommend that you send delegates that you can trust implicitly and let them decide just what is best to do and then proceed to accomplish it.

We delire to impress on you the necesyou can trust implicitly and let them de-cide just what is best to do and then pro-ceed to accomplish it.

We desire to impress on you the neces-sity of noting the persistence of the Citi-zens' Alliance movement in this State and trust to see it combatted before we have such a spectacle as is before us in our sister State of Colorado.

The meetings will be held in Federation hall, corner Fourth South and State streets, Salt Lake City, which will be fur-nished by the Salt Lake Federation free of cost. of cost.

Desiring to hold W. I. Wilson, alias C. H. Wells for Wilson who is wanted in his county for forgery, when it was found that the complaint in Dichl's court held the prisoner more tightly than was desired. Gov. Wells issued a warrant for him, but Attorney Will F. Wanless, on behalf of the prisoner, insisted that he should have a hearing on the charge filed against nim, and in addition to this instituted habeas corpus proceedings in the District court. No decision in either case being forthcoming before Monday, the Sheriff is patiently waiting.

Booth, who was in command of the colored troops at Fort Pillow, where he fell in the bloody massacre of April 12, 1864. Mrs. Booth, then a volunteer nurse in the Union army and a close friend of the immortal Lincoln, was tendered by the President the use of a Government boat to go in search of her husband's body, but the body was never found. At the close of the war Mrs. Booth came West, living for some time in Kansas, and reaching Salt Lake City in 1875, making this city her home from that time until her death.

Mrs. Booth was married on November 15, 1878, to Herman Hill, who has been prominent in the upbuilding of this city. The married life of this couple was an ideal one, and the sor-rowing husband will feel keenly the loss of one who was to him a real help-mate. While Mr. and Mrs. Hill have traveled extensively during the last few years, it was in their home that the greatest pleasure was found. Some time after the war the de-ceased, on account of her service for humanity and the Union cause, was granted by special act of Congress a Major's pension. But, while this action of a grateful country was highly appreclated by her, she treasured most of all certain letters from Abraham Lincoln, Gen. Grant and others, commending her work in behalf of the wounded on many battlefields. And even in the times of peace which followed the great war Mrs. Hill was ever active in the relief of the distressed; she found the greatest happiness in serving those who were in need of aid.

Aside from her husband, the only near relatives of Mrs. Hill are a sister, Mrs. V. L. Cox of Seattle, and a broth-er, A. B. Wait of Fort Londerdale, Fla. The sister is expected to arrive in the city in time for the funeral, which is to be held from the home at 3:50 p. m.

Cattlemen Rave at Sheeprangers

Serious Trouble Is Believed to Be Brewing in California and in Nevada.

Special to The Tribune.

RENO, Nev., April 22.-Indications point to a bitter war between cattlemen and sheepmen of Lassen county, California, and of this State. James Talbot, one of the largest sheepowners in this section, has just completed surveying ten square miles of the choicest pasture lands in Lassen county, and intends fencing the same. Cattlemen are protesting because they may be de-prived of the best part of the ranges. Talbot is upheld by the sheepmen, while the cattlemen are indignant over what they characterize a wholesale stealing of the public lands. Both sides are determined, and in the event either attempts to force its claims, trouble will result.
